The Path to your Ultimate Freelancing Career

Details to Our New Course

By Robert and Patty Thompson - Certified Barefoot Consultants®
Coaches

Robert and I are celebrating! We are almost finished with developing our first paid course! We will be offering this course in September. Dates are still to be determined.

The goal of this course is to help YOU, our clients, be the most successful you can be with your freelancing career.

We have been coaches now for about two years and between the two of us have helped many people be successful. We have learned many things from our clients and we are trying to incorporate everything we have learned into this course to make things easier going forward for new clients. Why reinvent the wheel each time right?

Here Are Some HighLights of the Course

The Path to your Ultimate Freelancing Career

This will be a four-week course held one day a week. We are going to rotate days and times each week so more people will be able to attend live on the call. The first offering of this course will be done LIVE which is why we will be rotating days and times. But down the road, we see this as a stand-alone course.

The initial live course will be open to EIGHT people. After the course, Robert will have individual zoom calls with 4 people and I will have individual zoom calls with 4. These individual zoom calls will be about 45 to 90 minutes long helping the client get onto a freelancing platform, normally Upwork.

Workbooks and Cheat Sheets

There will be FOUR workbooks include with the course and several cheat sheets to help you with your freelancing career. Keep watching for the next newsletter for more updates. You can also check out our website for a future blog post dedicated to our new course-
